Deadline extended for Hoopeston history book project

Hoopeston's history book, already an extensive collection of family stories, has more time to grow.

The deadline for submitting histories has been extended, said Judy Benjamin, office manager for the Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce.

Benjamin made her announcement at Monday's Community Involvement Committee meeting.

The deadline has been extended until after the National Sweetcorn Festival to allow time for family reunions, Benjamin said.

So far, nearly 500 families have submitted histories. Histories of local businesses "are slowly coming in," she said.

Anyone who has history information on businesses or other groups no longer in existence are asked to contact the Chamber office with that information.

The extended deadline for histories means an extended deadline for book purchases at a reduced rate.

Books purchased now will cost $50. Those buying books may pay half now and the other half by Oct. 1.

Books purchased after the deadline will cost $60 and must be paid for in full, Benjamin said.

In other community news, the Grant Township Food Cupboard served 57 families - 120 people - in May and served 51 people in three days this month, said Alta Goodrum, president of the agency's board of directors.

Food cupboard needs this month include canned meats and fish, toilet paper and quart size Ziploc bags, used to divide larger amounts of sugar and other staples.

Goodrum also issued a reminder that Appreciation Day at the food cupboard will be 3-5 p.m. June 17 at the Grant Township building, 525 S. Market.

The event is for volunteers and those who have donated to the food pantry.

In other business, the group decided not to meet during the summer. The next meeting will be Sept. 8.

Police News

Anthony Jenkins, 631 E. Young, reported Sunday that someone scratched his 1965 Plymouth while it was parked at 102 N. Market.

A gray speckled Huffy Dirt Dog bicycle was found Sunday at 648 E. McCracken. The bike has green accessories. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Evelyn Meador, 710 E. Main, reported Sunday that someone scratched her vehicle while it was parked at her home.

Melvin Reed, 528 E. Young, reported Monday that someone cut the left front tire of his 1950 Chevrolet flat bed truck while it was parked at his home.

Rules of the Road

A Rules of the Road review course will be held from 1-3 p.m. Wednesday at city hall. The course is free and open to the public.

For more information, call (217) 283-5833.

Planning commission to meet

The Hoopeston planning commission will meet at 4:15 p.m. June 23 at city hall.

The meeting was called after a request from Red and Helen Reed to rezone 528 E. Young from R-2 residential to R-3 multi family residential.

The couple plans to add a one-bedroom apartment in the end of their garage.
